POLO GROUNDS, Sept. 20.—Aided by George Harper's three home runs, one each in the second, sixth and eighth frames, the St. Louis Cardinals increased their lead over the New York Giants to three games this afternoon by defeating the McGraw clan, 8-5, in the first game of a twin bill.

It was a battle of home runs, six of them being scored off the offering of Larry Benton and Bill Sherdel. Hafey's homer in the seventh was the fourth off Benton. Andy Cohen and Frank Hogan hit circuit clouts for the New Yorkers. Benton was taken out for a pinch hitter in the eighth.

POLO GROUNDS, Sept. 20.—The New York Giants and the St. Louis Cardinals opened the series which may determine the outcome of the National League pennant race before 50,000 excited fans under a bright September sun this afternoon.

Separated by a margin of two games, with the Red Birds out in front, the two contenders were engaged in a double-header, with the Giants bent upon winning two games and tying up the pennant race before nightfall.

FIVE P. O. EMPLOYES ACCUSED AS THIEVES

Three Plead Guilty, One Woman Denies Thefts.

Five postal employes, one a woman, appeared before Federal Judge Henry D. Clayton of Alabama, today, on charges of mail thefts.

Judge Clayton complimented Postal Inspector William Plath and his fellow workers, saying that, if the prohibition agents were efficient as were those of the Post-office "police," things would be much better, and said the postal inspectors were the most efficient government agents with whom he had come in contact.

Three of the prisoners pleaded guilty and two denied guilt. Those who pleaded guilty were sentenced each to one year and a day in the Federal prison at Atlanta. They are, Gerald F. Thomas, 28, of 147 Schenck avenue, Postal Station E, Atlantic and Alabama avenues; William J. O'Donnell, 33 of 229 Beach 101st street, Rockaway Beach, attached to the Blythebourne station on Thirteenth avenue between Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh streets, and Burton E. Wilkeyson, 24, of 142 Nichous avenue, attached to the Jamaica office.

Mrs. Ruth M. Smith, 32, of 660 Lincoln avenue, Midland Beach, S. I., pleaded not guilty to mail thefts while relief clerk during the summer, as did Benjamin Wienerman, 33, of 1496 St. Marks avenue, attached to the Times Plaza station. Judge Clayton fixed their trials for Sept. 25.

Knickerbocker Dance

The annual fall tennis dance of the Knickerbocker Field Club was held in the clubhouse on Tennis court, Flatbush, last night, with more than 500 present.

The dance is a preliminary to the anniversary celebration to be held October 3. This is the fortieth year of the club's existence and it holds the record for being the oldest club in Brooklyn never to have undergone a reorganization.

EXTREME WINS AQUEDUCT RACE

Douvood Stable Gelding Captures Woodmere Stakes

AQUEDUCT, L. I., Sept. 20.—The Woodmere Claiming Stakes, stellar attraction on to-day's rather ordinary racing card, found only four accepting weights when five of the original field of nine declined the issue owing to the muddy condition of the course. Except from the unfavorable underfooting the candidates were forced to contest over the weather was one of the most ideal of the current season. A large crowd was in attendance and speculation throughout the programme was spiritive.

The Dorwood Stable's six-year-old gelding, Extreme, dashed the six furlongs of the Woodmere in 1:13 to annex major honors with Ben Block's Mordine Second and the Canyon Stable's Caroler taking the short end of the purse.

The son of Ultimatum-Lydia A. gave plenty of weight to his opposition and following the fast pace set by Mordine came around the latter after two furlongs had been cleared, carried Eddie Barnes on to victory by five full lengths. Mordine quickly relinquished the lead to the latter when challenged and could never improve his position after being passed. Caroler and Contemplate, the only other starters, raced as a team for the entire trip and were never seriously menacing. The race was worth $2,650 to the winner.

SARAZEN LEADS CRAIG 4 UP AT 18TH HOLE

Defending Champion Shows Good Form Despite High Winds.

QUAKER RIDGE GOLF CLUB, MAMARONECK, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Showing a marked propensity for combating high winds which were still winding their way through the Westchester Hills to-day, Gene Sarazen, former national open and professional champion, went to luncheon with a four-hole advantage over Craig Wood, the Jersey pro, who is making a game bid to oust the Fresh Meadow pro as champion of the Metropolitan Professional Golfers' Association.

In the thirty-six hole final for the title here to-day, Sarazen was four up at the end of the first eighteen holes by virtue of better iron play in the wind that was making it very difficult for the finalists to stay on the fairway and within striking distances of the pin.

Dykes singled. Quinn sacrificed, Heilmann to Gehringer. Bishop flied to Stone. Gehringer tossed out Haas. No runs, one hit.

"ANGEL" SAVES TRIO FROM JAIL TERMS

Porto Ricans About to Enter Cells When Fines Are Paid.

Three Porto Ricans before Police Justice Arthur J. Cace in the Valley Stream court on charges of attempted burglary, later found the charges changed to disorderly conduct and were sentenced to ten days in the county jail when an "angel" intervened, and paid their fines.

Unknown to the defendants, a man who gave his name as Messercchmidt stepped before the judg to save the men from going to jail. The Porto Ricans are, Pedro Reyl, 29, of 114 East 115th street, Manhattan; John Salas, 26, of 10 Lawrence avenue, Inwood, and Juan Cantron Alvarez, 30, of 112 East Fourteenth street, Manhattan.

Each man was found guilty and fined $10. They were unable to pay. Justice Case then imposed a sentence of ten days in the county jail at Mineola. The prisoners were about to be taken to jail when the "Mr. Messerschmidt" gave them their freedom by paying their fines.

SERRI-ATWELL SUIT GOES TO U. S. COURT

Attorney's Case Against Judge Is Transferred.

Supreme Court Justice Druhan to-day signed a norder transferring to Federal Court for trial the suit filed by Attorney F. R. Serri, of 66 Court street, against Federal Judge William H. Atwell for $50,000, charging slander.

Attorney Serri alleged that Judge Atwell had remarked in court that Serris's woman client before Atwell's court, had been unfortunate in her selection of an attorney. Serris contended this utterance damaged his reputation as a lawyer.

Judge Atwell asked for the transfer from Brooklyn Supreme Court on the ground of diversity of residence, in that the Judge is a resident of Dallas, Texas, while the plaintiff lives in Brooklyn. The transfer was granted as a matter of course.

J. P. SINNOTT LEFT ESTATE TO SONS

Will of Water Commissioner Filed for Probate.

The estate of James P. Sinnott, late Commissioner of the Bureau of Water Supply, is left to his five sons, the will, filed in the Surrogate's office to-day, revealed.

Commissioner Sinnott died in St. Mary's Hospital on Sept. 10, this year. The will was drawn in his own handwriting and signed in the presence of James H. Murphy and Frank A. Eshman, on Feb. 12, 1925.

The value of the estate is placed at "over $20,000" by attorneys.

The sons who will share the bequest are Carroll J., 1214 East Thirty-fifth street; Francis J., 118 Arlington avenue; John F., 129 Continental avenue, Forest Hills; James Paul, 1164 Park avenue, and Desmond J. Sinnott, a lieutenant in the U. S. Navy, who is stationed on the U. S. S. Maryland.

John and Francis Sinnott are named executors.

Freed of Murder

EASTON, Pa., Sept. 20 (U P).—Peter J. Miller, of Lower Saucon township, was freed to-day of murder charges in the death of Mrs. Julia Lorando. A verdict of acquittal was brought in by a jury late yesterday. It was testified that Mrs. Lorando had struck Miller with a rolling pin and in struggling for it, he hit the woman with the pin, killing her.

Held in Extortion Case

Joseph Riggio, 31, of 1275 Seventy-second street, was held in $2,500 bail for examination Sept. 25 by Magistrate Eilperin in Coney Island court on a charge of attempting to extort $5 from Frank Lomangio, an ice dealer, of 8201 Fifteenth avenue. It is alleged Riggio threatened Lomangio if the the latter refused to join a union.

SMITH REFUSES TO ENDORSE ANY EQUALIZATION FEE

FLORIDA DEAD 800, WITH 1200 MORE MISSING

Now Fear Disease Epidemic May Threaten the Homeless Survivors

Death tolls rose steadily to-day as relief forces pushed farther into the areas which were struck by the tropical hurricane.

From the Lake Okeechobee and West Palm Peach sections in Florida came revised reports which estimated that 800 persons had lost their lives from the wind and the flood waters of the lake. Twelve hundred persons were reported missing.

Porto Rican officials still were trying to establish communication with several isloated points. Coffee plantations suffered heavily, the latest dispatches said. The dead stood somewhere between 300 and 1,000, with Gov. Horace M. Towner refusing to make a definite estimate until all reports were received.

The French Parliament will be asked to appropriate $4,000,000 for the relief of storm sufferers in the French West Indies. Guadeloupe alone has 660 dead.

New York weather was back to normal after the metropolis area had been battered by a high wind, which was accompanied by heavy rain.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Sept. 20 (U P).—Hurried estimates to-day by relief workers in the Belleglade area placed the hurricane dead at 800, most of them in the West Palm Beach and Lake Okeechobee sections.

Twelve hundred persons were reported missing.

According to S. W. Hiatt, county agricultural agent, residents of Pahokee and relief workers working out of that station estimate the dead at practically the same figure.

An official estimate, reported by Governor Does Not Undertake "to Supply Machinery," He Says on Farm Relief Proposal.

Leaves That Part of Problem to Commission He Would Appoint—Makes Position Clear.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 20 (U P).—Governor Smith made it plain to-day that he had not endorsed the equilization fee of the McNary-Haugen bill, as such, nor any other specific plan for carrying into effect the general principles of farm relief enonciated in his acceptance speech.

"I don't know a great deal about any of these plans nor about the McNary-Haugen bill itself," he said in an interview.

"There have been four or five plans suggested. I do not undertake to supply the machinery. I leave that to a commission which I will appoint if elected."

Reminded of the suggestion of Gov. McMullen of Nebraska, that he say what he thinks about the equalization fee, Smith replied:

"If Gov. McMullen is os interested I'll appoint him on the commission."

The Governor said to-day there was no one outstanding issue in this campaign, but that issues were related.

"The great outstanding issues of all national campaigns are the prosperity and the welfare of the people," he declared.

Cleveland, Sept. 20.—Senator Arthur Capper, Kansas, farm bloc leader, predicted to-day that the vote in the coming Presidential election would reach 35,000,000. In 1924 there were approximately 29,000,000 votes cast.

MRS BELMONT'S PALACE TO BE AUCTIONED.

Newport, R. I., Sept. 20.—The marble palace of Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, society leader, will go under the auctioneer's hammer Oct. 9, according to a cablegram from Mrs. Belmont in France. The villa cost $5,000,000, but real estate authorities said it would cost from $8,000,000 to $10,000,000 to replace it.

FEVER INOCULATION MADE WALES SICK.

London, Sept. 20.—The Prince of Wales, en route to Africa for a hunting trip, suffered greatly from the effects of fever inoculation while on the way to Egypt, the "Evening Standard" reported to-day.
